

Here are details of events happening at the Abbey this weekend:

Saturday, May 2nd

10.00am till 4.00pm Abbey church, shop and cafe open to the public.
Guided tours available.

Sunday, May 3rd

11.00am Morning Worship for the Fifth Sunday of Easter.
The sermon highlights what it means 'to love one another' in a world of conflict and a society that is splintered in its beliefs and values.

As usual, the choir sing the most wonderful music:
'Benedictus est' by George McPhee and the joyful anthem by William Byrd, 'Haec Dies' (This is the day) from Psalm 118.

12.15pm Refreshments are served in the Cloister Cafe.
Abbey church, shop and cafe open to the public (limited period only).

3.00pm Organ Recital given by
Dr George McPhee, Director of Music, Paisley Abbey.
Entry £10 at door.

Please Note:

Sunday, May 10th

12.15pm Congregational AGM held.
4.00pm Choral Evensong.

Warm regards to all

Jim Gibson
Minister at the Abbey.

