

Dear Friends

As usual, here are details of events at the Abbey this weekend when we hope you may be able to join us.

Saturday, May 23rd

10.00am till 4.00pm Abbey church, shop and cafe open to the public.

12.30pm Paisley Abbey Music Society sponsored lunchtime recital by Paisley Abbey Choral Scholars.

Admission is £5 payable at the door.

Sunday, May 24th

11.00am Morning Worship for Pentecost.

Pentecost is such an exciting day to be at worship.

I very much hope you can do so.

The sermon explains how the gift of the Holy Spirit changed everything, giving birth to the Church and the possibility of our faith.

Glorious music colours the service with the choir singing the

Introit by Thomas Tallis, 'If ye love me';

the 'Jubilate Deo' by Heinrich Schutz;

and the anthem by Palestrina, 'Dum complerentur dies Pentecostes'

(Now when the Day of Pentecost had come).

12.15pm Abbey church, shop and cafe open (limited time)

3.00pm Organ Recital given by Marjorie Bruce

(Holy Trinity Church, St Andrews)

Admission is £10 payable at the door.

Monday 24th to Saturday 30th

10.00am till 4.00pm Abbey church, shop and cafe open to public.

Good wishes,

Jim Gibson

Minister at the Abbey.
